Coppa Hembo 1812-1898
Life changed drastically for Native Americans after the Gold Rush. Can you list just one reason for this?

___________________________
___________________________

James Marshall 1810-1885
His gold discovery in 1847 sparked the rush to California. Did he die a rich man? Why?

___________________________
___________________________

James B. Hume 1827-1904
Originally a young farmer, he came to California to find gold. List one of the jobs he did during his career.

___________________________
___________________________

Dat-so-la-lee 1829-1925
A gifted artisan, she adapted a traditional skill of basket weaving from making traditional use items to trade items. Can you see what the difference might be?

___________________________
___________________________

John M. Studebaker 1833-1917
He came as a teenager to Placerville in 1853 to mine. What did he do instead? After he left, did he ever return? How?

___________________________
___________________________

Stella Ralston Tracy 1876-1968
Stella was born and lived in Placerville. Her favorite doll, Ruby, is on display. Can you think of at least one change Stella saw happen here in her lifetime?

___________________________
___________________________

“The Goat Doctor” 1888-1959
Tuberculosis, Typhoid, and Spanish Influenza were very dangerous health risks during this man’s lifetime. Diagnosed as a young man with tuberculosis in the early 1900’s, he lived to see the vaccine invented.

How do you think his way of curing the sick was influenced by the times he lived through?

___________________________
___________________________

Copyright 2018. For more information or copies: www.eldoradocountyhistoricalsociety.org
- Used to pull wagons and farm equipment.
- Tool made by John M. Studebaker and sold to Miners.
- Used by the Pony Express to quickly change mail bags.
- Popular for entertainment in the 1870’s.
- A necessary piece of cookware used by indigenous tribes.
- Used by small dairy farms in the 1900’s.
- Where one went for goods, mail, and news.
- Used to keep clothes & hats clean and safe.
- Stylish non-electric fixture for lighting in a room.
- Symbol of El Dorado County, often found on legal papers or flags.
- Used by shepherds to live near their flocks of sheep.
- A book that held entries of business transactions.
- Early loggers stood in this to cut trees down.